

Avery Cordero, Golf Instructor

Avery was introduced to the game of golf at the age of 6 through The First Tee of Fresno. She is now both an alumni and a part time coach with the First Tee of Fresno. Currently, she is the varsity high school coach for Madera South High School. Avery has played competitive golf for six years, and most recently was a part of the Reedley College's 2021 Women's Golf Team.

Raised in Madera, California, Avery is studying a degree in Liberal Arts with an emphasis in Kinesiology at California State University, Fresno. She plans on becoming an elementary school teacher. She has a passion for teaching and through coaching both First Tee and High School golf, has specialized in youth golf instruction. She believes everyone needs to start out with great fundamentals.

Avery focuses on an individual's personal goals and golf development. She works to create an achievable timeline for all her students.
